LOSING TEAM PAY THE PENALTY
AT THE HOTEL.

Proud Record of the Sharpshooters Celebrated with Speech and Song.

It was a fine body of men that surrounded the festive board in the dining room of the Hawaiian Hotel yesterday evening. The Sharpshooters Company, which it was, is truly representative of the physical and mental stamina of Honolulu's prime. On this occasion the company, with a few guests, dined at the expense of Lieutenant J. L. McLean's team in a recent shooting contest, as the penalty of defeat by a team headed by Captain W. E. Wall.

There were present Capt. Wall, Col. J. H. Soper, Capt. Kidwell, Ed. Damon, Dr. Emerson, John Farnsworth, F. C. Rhodes, Fred Wikander, Rev. H. W. Peck, J. F.
Scott, M. N. Sanders, H. D. Johnson, W. T. Monsarrat, F. S.
Dodge, J. S. Martin, D. W. Corbett, A. C. Wall, J. B. Gibson, W.
H. Drummond, F. B. Oat, W. J.
Forbes, T. King, Charles Wall, C.
J. Campbell, Harry Waterhouse, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Joseph Marsden, Fred Leslie, John Cassidy, Ed. Towse, J. T. Stacker and Daniel Logan.

Manager Lucas put up an elegant banquet.

Jos. Marsden as toastmaster after dessert had been served remarked that this was the fourth dinner to which he had cheerfully contributed as a loser. He called on the captain to speak for the winners.

Captain Wall gave credit for the proficiency of the company to the patient and persevering work of his predecessors, Captains Kidwell and Dodge, and acknowledged the valued influence of the press in publishing the scores and giving cordial praise to excellence. He was proud of the average of 88 per cent attained by the company.

J. F. Scott sang the always new pieces of ancient balladry, "Sally in our alley," in good style.

Dr. Emerson recalled the work in the field, and watching in edifices of church and state, when trouble was faced by the supporters of the Government. He raised a laugh by a reference to Captain Kidwell's nasal sermon at the foot of the pulpit. In conclusion he proposed the health of "The Ladies," to be honored "in the wine that is not here and in the water that is," coupling with the toast the one who had formed the latest attachment—they might guess whom.

Rev. O. P. Emerson acknowledged the corn, as all eyes were turned to him. He gave an interesting account of the visit he paid to Greece with his bride, drawing from the history and features of that country a lesson in patriotism.

John Cassidy sang "Where there's a will there's a way" in fine voice, the company by his request taking the chorus.

Short speeches were made by Capt. Dodge, Rev. H. W. Peck, Henry Waterhouse, Jr., Col. J. H.
Soper, J. T. Stacker, Ed. Towse, J. S. Martin, Capt. Kidwell and the BULLETIN representative.

The dinner party was a most enjoyable one throughout. At an early stage the losing team gave a challenge for another contest on the same terms, which having been promptly accepted the next merry meeting appears glittering in the immediate future.

A patient about finishing his course at the Hagey Institute was asked if he considered the treatment a success. "A howling success," he answered with explosive emphasis. Another patient declares he cannot bear to stay in a room where the fumes of liquor reach him.

CONSTITUTION AND OFFICERS OF
THE ANNEXATION CLUB.

Large Meeting at the Drill Shed—Enrollment and Speechmaking—Thurston the Chief.

Damp weather and more of it threatened did not prevent a large gathering at the Drill Shed last night, for reorganizing the Annexation Club of nearly four years ago. A. S. Hartwell presided.
There was much enthusiasm displayed over the few speeches.

J. H. Fisher submitted the following draft of constitution from the committee appointed at a meeting of the old officers:

CONSTITUTION OF THE ANNEXATION
CLUB OF THE REPUBLIC OF HAWAII.

1. Object: The sole object of the Club is and shall be to promote and advocate the annexation of Hawaii to the United States of America, and for this end, to enroll as members all adult male residents of the Republic of Hawaii, irrespective of and entirely apart from any political party or belief, who consider such annexation desirable, and who are either of aboriginal Hawaiian birth or of American, English or European birth or parentage.

2. Membership: Any such person as mentioned in Article 1 may become a member by signing the constitution.

3. Officers: The officers of the Club shall be elected upon the adoption of this constitution, and shall be a president and four vice presidents, a recording secretary, a treasurer, a financial secretary and an Enrollment Committee, consisting of seven persons, all of which officers being members of the Club shall be chosen annually to hold office until their successors be chosen and accept office. Any vacancy may be filled by the officers at any meeting of officers. All the officers shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Club.
The officers may appoint sub-committees among themselves.

4. Meetings: The Club shall meet in Honolulu on the first Tuesday of each month and the first Tuesday of June, annually, for choice of officers and such other business as shall properly come before it, and at such other times as shall be decided at a meeting of the Board of Officers, or at the written request of not less than 20 members.

5. Quorum: A quorum at any meeting of the Club shall consist of the officers calling such meeting, and of not less than 30 members besides. A quorum at any meeting of the officers shall consist of the officers calling the same, and of other officers, so as to form a majority of all the officers.

6. Branch Clubs: Branch Clubs in the several election districts may be formed by any number of persons, not less than 25 eligible for membership, and every such branch club may elect from its own members a president, two vice presidents, a secretary and an Enrollment Committee of three persons. The secretary of such branch club shall promptly report the names of its officers and members to the secretary of this Club, who shall in turn notify the secretary of such branch club of its official number and of the proceedings of this Club and its officers in Honolulu.

7. Amendments: This constitution may be amended by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the Club called for the purpose of any proposed amendment, notice of the same having first been given to the members personally or by not less than three days' notice in some daily newspapers in Honolulu.

8. Resolutions: No resolution contrary to this constitution shall be adopted, and no resolution affecting the object or organ-
